MEETING IN DIVERSITY— OCCUPATION AS A COMMON GROUND

Think Tank Meeting as Pre-Conference on September 7th 2017

In Hildesheim, Germany

4th Occupational Science Europe Conference

September 8th – 9th 2017

The 2017 OSE conference “Meeting in Diversity – Occupation as a Common Ground”, hosted by HAWK University of Applied Sciences and Arts & ASH University of Applied Sciences, aims to create a meeting space for lively debates to explore and expand perspectives on occupation.

Topics of interest, focusing on occupation, are:

- Diversity, Justice, and Social Transformation
- Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Occupation
- Theories and Concepts about Occupation
- Occupation in and Throughout Everyday Life
- Paid Work, Voluntary Work, and Unemployment
- Therapy, Health Care, and Health Promotion

By encouraging “out-of-the-box” thinking, we hope to strengthen our understanding of occupation by linking different disciplinary and international approaches and theories.

2nd Think Tank Meeting

September 7th 2017

The 2nd Think Tank Meeting for Occupation-Based Social Transformation aims to continue and build on the work of the Think Tank from the COTEC-ENOTHE conference in Galway, Ireland in 2016. With a combination of igniter talks, exemplars and small working groups, this meeting aims to provide a dialogue between practical and theoretical knowledge as we further our understanding and effort in relation to occupation-based social transformation.
